Tenure-Track Position in Earth and Planetary Sciences

The department of Earth and Planetary Sciences at the Weizmann Institute of Science is seeking outstanding scientists in the field (including, but not limited to, geology, geophysics, geochemistry, atmospheric/climate science, planetary science, exoplanets). Qualified candidates are expected to have demonstrated scientific leadership and innovation in their research and potential for growth in these dimensions. Candidates should share our core values of excellence, inclusivity, and equity and should be committed to student mentorship.

Applicants must hold a Ph.D. in a relevant field by the start of employment. Our intent is to hire at the Senior Scientist level (equivalent to Assistant Professor), but more senior appointments may also be considered .

Additional information about the department may be found on EPS website.

Applications should include the following components:

1. Curriculum Vitae
2. List of Publications (with number of citations indicated for each paper)
3. Research Statement (limited to 3 pages, a longer research plan may be requested later)

Applicants should send complete applications by September 1, 2022, to

Prof .Oded Aharonson

Chair, Earth and Planetary Sciences
